

Operational and Proposed Crude-by-Rail Facilities and Coal Export Facilities in Washington

- LEGEND
- Freight Rail Corridors:
 - Rail corridors that will host energy trains
 - Other rail corridors
 - - - County line
 - Operational Crude-by-Rail Facility
 - Proposed Crude-by-Rail Facility
 - Proposed Coal Export Facility
 - = Estimated number of trains per day serving the facility (loaded) (when fully operational)

Source: WSDOT Freight Systems Division.

March 2014

Note: This map shows potential supply chain movements over the rail system in Washington state for both active and proposed facilities receiving crude oil for domestic refining and consumption or coal for export. This map highlights routes that could be used for loaded and/or empty train movements. Private companies own and operate the rail lines highlighted. Specific train movements are made at the sole discretion of the rail operator in accordance with undisclosed operating plans.